

Civil Engineer/Experienced Technician - IPSWICH

We are currently seeking an HNC/HND/Degree qualified Civil Engineer with experience in the design of roads/earthworks, drainage and Flood risk assessments.

You will have experience in Drainage/Road design, Flood Risk assessments/Drainage strategies. You will be responsible for running schemes through from conception to completion and will assist on projects as part of a team. This role will ideally suit an experienced individual.

The company undertakes various assignments ranging from small local projects to large national projects. The company operates in many sectors including Residential, Healthcare, Industrial, Education, Retail & Leisure, Commercial and the public sector.

You will be responsible for

- Liaising with local authorities to gain section 278 & 38 approvals
- Detailed Drainage Design to support Agreements
- Writing flood risk assessments and drainage statements with preliminary drainage calculations.
- Produce detailed drawings for approvals and construction issue
- Liaising with clients and architects as well as attending meetings
- 3D ground modelling
- Competent using AutoCAD, civil 3D, PDS, Site 3D & Microdrainage

In return we offer a competitive salary, pension and private healthcare with excellent working conditions in a friendly environment and potential for career growth.